

11 Reasons Ford Should Keep the UAW Out of Tennessee

...And They're All Convicted UAW Leaders

Dennis Williams
Former President

Gary Jones
Former President

Norwood Jewell
Former Vice President

Vance Pearson
Former Region 5 Director

Edward Robinson
Former Top Aide

Joe Ashton
Former Vice President

Michael Grimes
Former Assistant to VP

Nancy Adams Johnson
Former Senior Official

Keith Mickens
Former Senior Official

Virdell King
Former Assistant Director

Jeffery Pietrzyk
Former Top Aide

Ford announced this month that it plans to build a new auto plant in Tennessee. The company's jobs are welcome in the state, but the UAW and its culture of corruption are not. That's why autoworkers in Chattanooga rejected UAW representation, twice.

Learn more about the union's scandals at:
UAWInvestigation.com